MEMORANDUM FOR: George V. Carver

SUBJECT : Invitation to Address Project USEFUL No. 13

1. During the period 2 through 6 October 1967, the Office of Training, in conjunction with the Planning Support Group of the Missions and Programs Staff/DDP, will present the annual CIA orientation for senior personnel selected by the Joint Chiefs of Staff. This one-week orientation, known as Project USEFUL, is designed for military officers whose current or impending assignments within a major continental or overseas command require close and frequent contact with CIA representatives. The primary objective of the orientation, of course, is to maintain and improve CIA-DOD cooperation and coordination by providing these officers with the opportunity to become more fully and accurately acquainted with the Agency's mission and capabilities in peace and war.

2. You are cordially invited to discuss the following topic at the time and place indicated below:

Vietnam Briefing.

Wednesday, 4 October 1967 - 0830-0900. 1A-07 Hqs.

3. In order to ensure proper continuity and to lend the course the overall coherence which enhances effectiveness, we have appended for your use and guidance:

- A. A copy of the course schedule which will give you an appreciation of the total coverage and how your topic relates thereto.
- B. A speaker guidance sheet containing data on course objectives and some suggestions regarding instructional approach.

- C. A roster of students, with rank and job assignment, which will give you an idea of particular student interests.

4. Your participation in Project USEFUL is much appreciated. Please do not hesitate to call upon the Office of Training for any further information or assistance you may need. In this regard it would be most helpful to know in advance what type of visual aids (e.g., slides) you might employ, so that we may arrange proper projection equipment. Please contact the Course Coordinator, [redacted] on Extension [redacted] regarding any outstanding details.
